

2018 MARAAS Conference and Teaching Asia Workshop

“Peace in Asia: Past, Present, and Possible”

Elizabethtown College

November 3-4, 2018

Teaching Asia Workshop Schedule

Saturday, November 3

Although this workshop is designed for K-12 educators who are interested in enhancing their curriculum with Asia content, all individuals are welcome to participate. Participants will be presented with a professional development certificate of completion and PA ACT 48 credit is available upon request.

9.00-9.15 am	Registration	Susquehanna Rm/Myer Hall Parking: COB
9.15-9.30 am	Welcome address Mahua Bhattacharya, Associate Professor of Japanese and Asian Studies	Susquehanna Rm/Myer Hall
9.30-10.30 pm	Lecture and Discussion “Peacemaking and South Asian Religions: Teaching the Vedic Traditions in the K-12 Classroom” Jeff Long, Professor of Religious Studies and Asian Studies	Susquehanna Rm/Myer Hall
10.30-12.00 pm	Screening of “Day of the Western Sunrise”	Susquehanna Rm/Myer Hall
12.15-1.45 pm	Annual Business Meeting Lunch and Keynote Address by AAS President Prasenjit Duara	Susquehanna Rm/Myer Hall
2:00-3:30 pm	Lecture and Discussion, “Hibakusha and Peacemaking in Japan” Sasamori Shigeko, Hiroshima Bombing Survivor and one of the so-called Hiroshima Maidens	Gibble Auditorium/ Esbenshade Hall